

Je Pil Jeon, Ph.D., Biography

Je Pil Jeon, Ph.D., is a Certified Kirkpatrick Facilitator and affiliate with Kirkpatrick Partners in Korea. He is the President and Founder of InnoTraining Inc., an e-Learning re-engineering, innovation training and development, competency and performance business.

Using his 17 years of OD/HR Consulting and labor attorney experience, he consults and facilitates for organizations in Korea. He has co-authored the Talent and Development Appraiser Manual and has authored the MBTI & Competency Manual, Human Resource Management, Management Organization Theory and Overview of Management. He also developed the Risk Assessment Management System (RAMS) and has the software program copyright and trademark of the RAMS.

He also is a CMC (Certified Management Consultant), labor attorney, Lead Auditor of Korea Occupational Safety and Healthcare Agency (KOSHA), and a certified MBTI & STRONG Facilitator.

Je Pil has worked extensively with Korean Government Agencies for a long time and is a member of the evaluation and professional committees of Government Agencies. His professional areas cover training evaluation, performance and reward systems, risk assessment, team building using MBTI and Firo-b, NCS (National Competency Standard) and leadership.

Applying the New World Kirkpatrick Model will deliver excellent results for the clients and government agencies with whom Je Pil works, helping him to strengthen long-term partnerships with them.