

Ewa Żukrowska

Ewa Żukrowska is a founder and partner of the consulting and training company Focus on Results (FOR).

Educated as a psychologist, Ewa earned an MBA in 1997. She is a manager with 18 years of experience, as well as a consultant, trainer, and coach. She has earned her ICC and Erickson Professional Coach certificates.

Ewa gained business experience as a manager and director in the retail chain Ahold Polska and as Program Director and Vice President of one of the biggest training companies in Poland, Nowe Motywacje.

Ewa has led projects for the following industries: retail chains, energy, telecommunications, new technologies, banking and insurance, shared services, and outsourcing. She is passionate about designing complex training and development projects that lead to significant changes in organizations.

